OVERVIEW

COMPANY PROFILE

Global Masters Fund Limited (the "Company") was listed on the ASX in 2006 with the strategy to provide a vehicle for Australian investors, seeking long-term capital growth through investing in Berkshire Hathaway Inc listed on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) and other global investments. The Company's policy is not to hedge the underlying currencies of its portfolio of global investments.

The portfolio is managed by EC Pohl & Co Pty Ltd which has a strong funds management investment team. The composition and performance of the investment portfolio is monitored by the Board of Directors, which comprises business people with many years of experience in the business, investment and funds management.

There is no fixed management fee and no performance fee payable to the Manager for the administration of the Company and the existing investments in Berkshire Hathaway and Athelney. However, for the new mandate given to the Manager (excluding the existing investments), there will be a fee payable for good performance and active management and in terms of a pre-determined formula.

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

Dear Shareholder,

I am pleased to present the 12th Annual Chairman's Report of Global Masters Fund Limited for the 2016/17 financial year.

The Year in Review:

During the past twelve months, global markets have been subjected to heightened uncertainty and increasing volatility, due to a number of concerns:

- Continued uncertainty in Europe
- Patchy but sustained recovery in the United States
- China's increasing debt burden, and volatility in the economy
- Historically low interest rates and uncertainty about their future direction.

Immediately following the UK referendum to leave the European Union (EU), global markets initially reacted badly, but quickly recovered, have largely been resilient across most regions - "Brexit" did not cause a global financial crisis. However, the longer-term impact of Brexit may not be known for some time, possibly years, and the final result is no clearer than it was a year ago. Future trading relationships is still dependent on the final outcome of the EU negotiations.

To give some indication of the complex balancing act being pursued by policy makers and central bankers I quote from a recent Athelney directors report:

Setting interest rates in the UK is a delicate business these days. The hawks on the Monetary Policy Committee cite falling unemployment, surveys suggest that companies are keen to invest and export and that economic models from the past predict that joblessness this low will soon push inflation higher. To head off these inflationary pressures, hawks think that there is an urgent need to remove the quarter point cut of last August to slow spending, prevent unemployment falling

Following the Brexit vote Sterling did fall in value, which affects the value of your investment through Athelney. However, the companies that Athelney invest in have, in the past, proved to be reasonably recession proof, and the overall strategy is little changed.

The longer-term impact of the Trump Presidency is also uncertain particularly as it may affect international trading relationships, nevertheless the US economy remains stronger and the value of the $US has improved but is affected by an unknown short term direction of interest rates. In some views the share market appears to be overvalued but this also depends on the view of interest rate movements and the impact of trading relationships.

As a matter of policy, the overseas assets have not been hedged on the basis that most investors seeking offshore assets seek both company and currency exposures. This policy is reviewed from time to time.

In spite of the political turmoil during the year, the Australian share market produced a reasonable return over the year with the All Ordinaries Index rising by 8.5%.

The Net Tangible Asset per share (NTA) of the Company increased by 10.5% in 2016/17 compared with an increase of 5% in the prior year. Net assets increased by $1.4 million. The net profit for the year (after all expenses) was $68,267 compared to $1,044 in the previous year.

The Market Outlook

We remain cautiously optimistic about the outlook for markets generally, but it is not without risks. Last year the Australian economy was dealing with a depressed commodity market, to some extent this has changed and commodity prices remain volatile, in the recent past the $A has strengthened to some degree but is still affected by low interest rates, and uncertainty regarding future direction. This strength has in part being due to weakness in the $US as well as improved commodity prices.

In our view, companies with strong market positions, strong balance sheets and good management, will continue to perform well and reward patient investors, although we expect market returns to be modest again in the coming year.

With continuing very low and sometimes negative interest rates, there has been an on-going interest in income producing shares and investors generally are looking more carefully at companies with good balance sheets and a profitable business. At a corporate level companies are finding debt cheaper than new equity to meet their capital requirements.

Given the uncertainties in the Australian economy which still depends to a large extent on developments in China we believe that Australian Investors will continue to benefit from exposure to offshore assets provided that they are invested in good quality business.

The underlying Global Masters investments through Berkshire Hathaway and Athelney are well placed to continue to add value through their strategies and careful management. In addition to this, we have recently further reduced our position in Flagship's and authorised through a mandate with EC Pohl & Co Pty Ltd an investment of approx $1 million in European and UK market.

The Board

I particularly want to thank my fellow Board members for their support and input in the past year. We had the privilege of welcoming Murray d'Almeida as a new Director to your Board; his corporate expertise adds considerable value to our deliberations. Special thanks must continue to go Dr Manny Pohl and his small but brilliant team of investment professionals at E C Pohl & Co. Our success would not be possible without the outstanding contribution of these very committed individuals.

I also take this opportunity to thank Mr Brian Jones as our Company Secretary for his continuing efforts to ensure that the Company is fully compliant with all our legal and ASX obligations.

I thank Shareholders for their on-going support and look forward to another good year ahead.

Yours sincerely

Jonathan Addison

3. PRINCIPAL ACTIVITIES

The principal activity of the Company is investing in Berkshire Hathaway Inc on NYSE, Athelney Unit Trust Plc on LSE and Flagship Investments Limited on the ASX. There have been no significant changes in the nature of this activity during the year.

4. REVIEW OF OPERATIONS

Our portfolio outperformed the market with the NTA increasing by 10.5% over the past twelve months, as compared to the ASX All Ordinaries Index which increased by 8.5% in spite of the political turmoil that occurred during the year.

The past financial year was very much a year of two halves as growth stocks under-performed during the first half of the year when (political) uncertainty caused future growth to be heavily discounted. This was reversed over the course of the latter part of the financial year as discerning investors paid up for quality growth companies once again. It has been a welcomed contrast to the prior year where uncertainty ran high, whilst returns remained low.

Across the globe we have seen increasing business and consumer confidence aided by falling unemployment that has extended to strong corporate earnings across many regions. The continued market performance has been in spite of a highly divisive US President and rising anti-European union parties. One thing can be said for the financial year of 2017, political risks were a major theme driving international markets. The US saw the success of the anti-establishment candidate, Donald Trump become President. In Europe we have seen a defeated coup d'tat in Turkey; the French centralist, Emmanuel Macron, gained victory over the populist far-right Le Pen; the Dutch rejected their populist candidate; a failed constitutional reform in Italy; and the surprise of Prime Minister Theresa May losing her parliamentary majority.

Turning to the key regions of our largest underlying investments, the US and UK, we saw US markets reach record highs as Wall Street was revitalised on the back of President Trump's Tax Reform agenda, higher infrastructure spending and less regulation. In addition, the US Fed has taken a more aggressive monetary policy stance raising interest rates three times over the period. The S&P500 Index gained 15.5% in local currency terms. During the year, the UK triggered the start of their Brexit negotiation process and we can be sure there will be further surprises as negotiations continue. Whilst British markets continued to feel the weight of Brexit and the ongoing uncertainty, the markets were largely supported by strong corporate earnings and some M&A activity. The FTSE100 increased by 12.4% in British pounds.

Domestically, the Australian Dollars resilience has been surprising, particularly given the lacklustre performance of the Australian economy and a rising US interest rate. As a result, the strengthening of the Australian dollar reduced the returns to Australian investors. In this regard, the Australian dollar increased by 3.2% over the year, closing at 76.9 US cents while the Australian dollar increased by 5.4% over the year against the British Pound, closing at 59.0 British pence.

5. SIGNIFICANT CHANGES IN THE STATE OF AFFAIRS

Significant changes in the state of affairs of the Company during the financial year were as follows:

- The value of the portfolio before fees and taxes increased by 13.6%.
- Murray d'Almeida was appointed a Director on 10 October 2016.
- Global Masters Fund owns 16.2% of Athelney Trust Plc.

6. MATTERS SUBSEQUENT TO THE END OF THE FINANCIAL YEAR

No other matter or circumstance not otherwise dealt with in the Director's Report or Financial Report, which has arisen since the end of the year that has significantly affected, or may significantly affect the operations of the Company, the results of those operations or the state of affairs of the Company in future financial years.

7. LIKELY DEVELOPMENTS AND EXPECTED RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

There are no planned changes to principal activities. Any general decline in equity markets may have an adverse effect on results in future years.

1. BASIS OF PREPARATION

The financial statements are general purpose financial statements that have been prepared in accordance with the Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Act 2001.

These financial statements and associated notes comply with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board.

The financial statements have been prepared on an accruals basis and are based on historical costs modified, where applicable, by the measurement at fair value of selected non-current assets, financial assets and financial liabilities.

Significant accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements are presented below and are consistent with prior reporting periods unless otherwise stated.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Revenue and Other Income

Revenue is recognised when the amount of the revenue can be measured reliably, it is probable that economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the Company and specific criteria relating to the type of revenue as noted below, has been satisfied.

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable and is presented net of returns, discounts and rebates.

All revenue is stated net of the amount of goods and services tax (GST).

Interest Revenue

Interest is recognised using the effective interest method

Dividend Revenue

Dividends are recognised when the entity's right to receive payment is established.

(b) Income Tax

The income tax expense recognised in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income comprises of current income tax expense plus deferred tax expense.

Current tax is the amount of income taxes payable (recoverable) in respect of the taxable profit (loss) for the year and is measured at the amount expected to be paid to (recovered from) the taxation authorities, using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period. Current tax liabilities (assets) are measured at the amounts expected to be paid to (recovered from) the relevant taxation authority.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences and losses can be utilised.

Current and deferred tax is recognised as income or an expense and included in profit or loss for the period except where the tax arises from a transaction which is recognised in other comprehensive income or equity, in which case the tax is recognised in other comprehensive income or equity respectively.

(c) Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Revenue, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of goods and services tax (GST), except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Australian Taxation Office (ATO).

Receivables and payable are stated inclusive of GST.

The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the ATO is included as part of receivables or payables in the statement of financial position.

Cash flows in the statement of cash flows are included on a gross basis and the GST component of cash flows arising from investing and financing activities which is recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is classified as operating cash flows.

(d) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprises cash on hand, demand deposits and short-term investments which are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value.

(e) Financial Instruments

Financial Assets At Fair Value Through Profit Or Loss

Financial assets at fair value through Profit or Loss are Financial Instruments convertible in to Equity Instruments. A financial asset is classified in this category if it is so designated by management and within the requirement of AASB 9 Financial Instruments. Realised and unrealised gains and losses arising from changes in the fair value of these assets are included in the profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

FINANCIAL REPORT

GLOBAL MASTERS FUND LIMITED NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2017

Financial Assets At Fair Value Through Other Comprehensive Income

The Company is a long-term investor in equity instruments. Under AASB 9, these investments are classified as fair value through Other Comprehensive Income. After initial recognition at fair value (being cost), the Company has elected to present in Other Comprehensive Income changes in fair value of equity instruments investments.

Unrealised gains and losses on investments are recognised in the Asset Revaluation Reserve until the investment is sold or otherwise disposed of, at which time the cumulative gain or loss is transferred to the Profit and Loss Statement.

Available-For-Sale Financial Assets

These investments are measured at fair value.

Unrealised gains and losses arising from changes in the fair value of these assets are taken directly to Other Comprehensive Income and accumulated in Equity.

When these financial Assets are sold, the accumulated fair value adjustments are reclassified from Equity to the profit or loss as gains and losses on sale.

Available-For-Sale Financial assets are assessed at each reporting date to determine whether there is an objective evidence that it is impaired. In the case of Available-For-Sale Financial Instruments, a significant or prolonged decline in the value of the instruments below cost is considered to be evidence of whether or not impairment has arisen.

Any cumulative impairment loss in respect of an Available-For-Sale Financial Asset previously recognised in equity is reclassified to profit or loss.

An impairment loss is reversed if the reversal can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognised. For Available-For-Sale Financial Assets that are debt securities, the reversal is recognised in profit or loss. For equity securities, the reversal is recognised in Other Comprehensive Income.

Loans and Receivables

Loans and receivables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost, less provision for doubtful debts. Trades receivables are due for settlement no more than 30 days from the date of recognition.

Collectability of loans and receivables is reviewed on an ongoing basis. Debts which are known to be uncollectible are written off. A provision for impairment of trade receivables is established when there is objective evidence that the Company will not be able to collect all amounts due according to the original terms of the receivables.

Significant financial difficulties of the debtor, probability that the debtor will enter bankruptcy or financial reorganisation, and default or delinquency in payments (more than 30 days overdue) are considered indicators that the trade receivable is impaired.

The amount of the provision is the different between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the original effective interest rate. Cash flows relating to short-term receivables are not discounted if the effect of discounting is immaterial. The amount of the provision is recognised in the profit or loss in other expenses.

Fair Value Estimation

The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets (such as publicly traded derivatives and securities) is based on quoted market prices at the Statement of Financial Position date. The quoted market price used for financial assets held by the Company is the current bid price. The appropriate quoted market price for financial liabilities is the current bid price.

The nominal value less estimated credit adjustments of trade receivables and payables are assumed to approximate their fair values. The fair value of financial liabilities for disclosure purposes is estimated by discounting the future contractual cash flows at the current market interest rate that is available to the Company for similar financial instruments.

(f) Trade And Other Payables

Liabilities for trade payables and other amounts are carried at cost which is the fair value of the consideration to be paid in the future for goods and services received, whether or not billed to the Company.

(g) Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a legal or constructive obligation, as a result of past events, for which it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will result and that outflow can be reliably measured.

Provisions for Dividends

Provision is made for the amount of any dividend declared, being appropriately authorised and no longer at the discretion of the entity, on or before the end of the reporting period but not distributed at the end of the reporting period.

(h) Share Capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of ordinary shares and share options which vest immediately are recognised as a deduction from equity, net of any tax effects

GLOBAL MASTERS FUND LIMITED
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
 FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2017

(i) New Accounting Standards and Interpretations

The AASB has issued new and amended Accounting Standards and Interpretations that have mandatory application dates for future reporting periods. The following table summarises those future requirements, and their impact on the Company where the standard is relevant:

AASB 9 Financial Instruments and amending standards AASB 2010-7 / AASB 2012-6
Effective Date	Changes to the classification and measurement requirements for financial assets and financial liabilities
1 July 2018	The Company complies with AASB 9

3. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

(a) Key Estimates

There are no key assumptions or sources of estimation uncertainty that have a risk of causing material adjustment to the carrying amounts of certain assets and liabilities within the next annual reporting period as investments are carried at their market value.

(b) Key Judgements

The preparation of financial reports in conformity with Australian Account Standards require the use of certain critical accounting estimates. This requires the Board to exercise their judgement in the process of applying the Company's accounting policies.

The carrying amount of certain assets and liabilities are often determined based on estimates and assumptions of future events. In accordance with AASB 112 Income Taxes, deferred tax liabilities and deferred tax assets have been recognised for Capital Gains Tax (CGT) on the unrealised gains/losses in the investment portfolio at current tax rates.

As the Directors do not intend to dispose of the portfolio, the tax liability/benefit may not be crystallised at the amount disclosed in Note: 13. In addition, the tax liability/benefit that arises on the disposal of these securities may be impacted by changes in tax legislation relating to treatment of capital gains and the rate of taxation applicable to such gains/losses at the time of disposal.

The Company has an investment process which is anticipated will deliver medium to long-term capital growth - minimum investment period is three to five years.

The deferred tax asset has been carried forward as it believed that this process will deliver growth over this period to utilise the deferred tax asset.

The Company does not hold any securities for short term trading purposes. Therefore the investment portfolio is classified as Financial Assets at fair value through Other Comprehensive Income.

4. OPERATING SEGMENTS

Segment Information

The Company operates in the investment industry. Its core business focuses on investing in International equities to achieve medium to long-term capital growth and income.

Operating segments have been determined on the basis of reports reviewed by the Managing Director. The Managing Director is considered to be the chief operating decision maker of the Company. The Managing Director considers the business from both a product and geographic perspective and assesses performance and allocates resources on this basis. The Managing Director considers the business to consist of just one reportable segment.

The maximum exposure to credit risk at balance date in relation to each class of financial assets (excluding investments) is the carrying amount of those assets as indicated in the balance sheet. The Company has no commercial debtors and receivables are due from reputable companies listed on the world's stock exchange or major financial banking institutions.

With respect to credit risk on cash and investment, the Company's exposure to credit risk arises from default of the counter party, with a maximum exposure equal to the carrying amount of those investments. The Company's business activities do not necessitate the requirement for collateral.

(d) Net Fair Value

The following methods and assumptions are used to determine the net fair values of financial assets and liabilities:

Cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments:

The carrying amount approximates fair value because of their short term to maturity.

Trade receivables and payables:

The carrying amount approximates fair value as the time to receipt or payment is usually less than 30 days.

Listed shares:

The current quoted market bid price approximates fair value and the carrying amount.

The carrying value of all the financial assets and liabilities of the Company as disclosed in the balance sheet and notes to the financial statements is the same as the net fair value.

(e) Sensitivity Analysis

The following table illustrates sensitivities to the Company's exposures to changes in interest rates, exchange rates and commodity and equity process. The table indicates the impact on how profit and equity values reported at balance date would have been affected by changes in the relevant risk variable that management considers to be reasonably possible. These sensitivities assume that the movement in a particular variable is independent of other variables.

At 30 June 2017, the effect on profit and equity as a result of changes in the interest rate, with all other variables remaining constant would be as follows:

6 Months or less	2017	2016
Change in profit
+/- 2% in interest rates	+/- 1,165	+/- 1,000
Change in equity
+/- 5% in $A/US$	+/- 736,833	+/- 675,308
+/- 10% in listed investments	+/- 1,582,463	+/- 1,507,871

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

GLOBAL MASTERS FUND LIMITED ABN 84 109 047 618

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF GLOBAL MASTERS FUND LIMITED

Report on the Audit of the Financial Report

Opinion

I have audited the financial report of Global Masters Fund Limited (the Company), which comprises the statement of financial position as at 30 June 2017, the statement of comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies, and the directors' declaration.

In my opinion,

- (a) the accompanying financial report of Global Masters Fund Limited, is in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001, including:
 - (i) giving a true and fair view of the Company's financial position as at 30 June 2017 and of its financial performance for the year then ended; and
 - (ii) complying with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Regulations 2001.
- (b) the financial report also complies with International Financial Reporting Standards as disclosed in Note 1.

Basis for Opinion

I conducted my audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. My responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report section of my report. I am independent of the Company in accordance with the auditor independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001 and the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the Code) that are relevant to our audit of the financial report in Australia. I have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

I confirm that the independence declaration required by the Corporations Act 2001, which has been given to the directors of the Company, would be in the same terms if given to the directors as at the time of this auditor's report. I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the financial report of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of my audit of the financial report as a whole, and in forming my opinion thereon, and I do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Matter

Available for Sale Financial Assets. Refer note 1(e) and 10

This matter has been recognised due to its materiality, representing 94% of total assets. Equity instruments are classified at fair value through other Comprehensive income. Initial recognition is at cost with the Company electing to present in Other Comprehensive Income changes in the fair value of the investments.

Audit procedures adopted, included: Confirmation from third parties of securities held by the Company at balance date, Agreeing the valuation of investments and reported dividend income with relevant stock exchanges and Company announcements. Reconciling the movement in fair value for the year and reviewing the Company's disclosure in the financial report to ensure compliance with applicable Australian Accounting Standard AASB 9. Audit objectives surrounding this matter were achieved.

Information Other than the Financial Report and Auditor's Report Thereon

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Company's annual report for the year ended 30 June 2017, but does not include the financial report and my auditor's report thereon.

My opinion on the financial report does not cover the other information and accordingly I do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with my audit of the financial report, my responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial report or my knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work I have performed, I conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, I am required to report that fact. I have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the Directors for the Financial Report

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Act 2001 and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, the directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report

My objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes my opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards, I exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. I also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If I conclude that a material uncertainty exists, I am required to draw attention in my auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify my opinion. My conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial report, including the disclosures, and whether the financial report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

I communicate with the directors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that I identify during my audit.

I also provide the directors with a statement that I have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on my independence, and where applicable, related safeguards

From the matters communicated with the directors, I determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial report of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. I describe these matters in my auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, I determine that a matter should not be communicated in my report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Report on the Remuneration Report

Opinion on the Remuneration Report

I have audited the Remuneration Report included in page 9 of the directors' report for the year ended 30 June 2017. The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation and presentation of the Remuneration Report in accordance with section 300A of the Corporations Act 2001. My responsibility is to express an opinion on the Remuneration Report, based on my audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards.

Auditor's Opinion

In my opinion, the Remuneration Report of Global Masters Fund Limited, for the year ended 30 June 2017, complies with section 300A of the Corporations Act 2001.
